OUR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

DULLNESS EVERYWHERE—STILL HARPING ON TH REMOVAL OF SHERIDAN-THE ARGUMENTS IN THE SURBATT CASE—SECRETARY STANTON VERSUS PRESIDENT JOHNSON-ABSENCE OF CABINET OF-FICERS-THE PRESIDENT TO MAKE ANOTHER TOUR, ETC., ETC.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—The Capital, just at the present time, is absolutely devoid of the slightest political activity. Dullness reigns everywhere: at the White House, in the public departments, and along the business thoroughfares of the city. The reasons are very plain. So many have chosen this month to absent themselves from siness and official duties that it could not be otherwise than dull. There are two events, however, which will be interesting, and probably cause some little excitement-when they occur. The first has been promised for some time, and now everybody is on the look out for it. That is the val of General SHERIDAN. The other is the verdict of the jury in the SURRATT trial. The counsel for the defence have concluded their addresses to the jury, and Judge PIERPONT, for the prosecution, commenced yesterday a very elaborate argument, which his friends say will not be concluded before Tuesday, and which they assert will have the effect of deciding the case against the prisoner. For that, it is best to await without speculating. The jury have had a severe siege, and are all anxious to get back to their business avecations. They certainly occupy no enviable position. With regard to the SHEBIDAN rumor, or it may now be said to be a fact, as there is no doubt whatever of the President's intention to make a change, his successor is not to be Hancock, as was authoritatively asserted a few days ago, but General Thomas. There are very good grounds for making this assertion, and it can be stated most positively that such was the intention of the President yesterday, and unless induced to change his mind by strong influences and very important considerations—which is within the range of possibility—the official order to that effect may be expected early this week. This affair has been the source of no little commotion in official circles, and its agitation has, among other things, reed the old story that Mr. STANTON would resign his position as Secretary of War. For two or three days that a report has been in circulation that several liftle episodes of not a very pleasant character had occurred between the President and his War Minister; but that is nothing uncommon, as it is known that the wide differences of opinion hich exist between the two have often been the occasion of very animated—to write wildssions. Possibly the last mentiongentleman thinks that under the tenure of office bill, the President cannot remove any of the military commanders, and some wiseacres say that such is the belief, also, of General GRANT; such a notion is the veriest nonsense imaginable. However far the General-in-Chief may not be disposed to debate the meanings of constitutional provisions, we certainly recognize that which asserts the President to be Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy in its broadest sense. Upon political matters, we all know the General to be profoundly reticent—he has never spoken a word to his staff officers on these topics; but he is a will take when a commission in official circles arises on the topic of relieving General SHKRIDAN. Several of the members of the cabinet are now absent from the city, recuperating their energies for a long siege when Congress reassembles, and it is very probable that, before the summer is over, the President will take another tour-but this time on a quiet little trip for his health, and the public need expect no speeches or great demonstrations, ch as characterized the previous tours of the stickler for obedience to orders, and it yet remains to be seen what position that prominent officer

Chief Magistrate. It is not believed that any action will be taken by the President towards the removal of General Pore from command of the District under his control, notwithstanding the urgent appeal made by a number of Alabamians for such action. The President does not consider that any but the greatest consideratitions should induce his interference with the Military Commanders, as he is not willing in the least to obstruct in any way the smooth operations of the reconstruction law. It is now a very general feeling among the best friends of the South that the sooner Congress has its law of reconstruction practically adopted in the South the sooner we shall have an end to the complicated state of affairs in that section. No good can come of fighting that measure, and the true people of the South will gain more friends, who will be of service to them hereafter in the North and West, by adopting it sooner than they ever could by either submission only, or by resenting the operations of the Statute. President making is at a discount. All parties are unsettled, and, with the departure of the wirepullers from Washington, has gone all talk of the next Presidency. It seems to be very generally conceded by the Republicans that at this time it is worse than folly for that party to talk about a candidate, though the removal of SHERIDAN, will, no doubt, give an impetus to the considerations of a proper person, such as at present is not thought of.

The weather is not unpleasant in Washington. and a season of amusements is about to be inaugurated upon the return of the National Base Ball Club from the war in the West; there has been much additional interest given to the game, and we have one or more now nearly every day. The yachting fever is spreading and another yacht club is promised this city of magnificent distances; but our German friends will carry off the palm this week with their Schutzenfest. Great are the preparations that have been made, and "many will be there to see." Another Sunday paper, to be called the Home Circle, promises to make its appearance in this city on the 11th inst. Two are already braving the breakers of hard times; but the more the merrier are probably the sentiment that animates the movers in the new enterprise.

SUICIDE OF A BEAUFORT PLANTER.—We clip from the Phonix of yesterday, the following sad account of a suicide that occurred in that city. Mr. BEN-JAMIN THOMPSON, a citizen of St. Peter's Parish, Beanfort District, who has for some time past been much depressed in spirits, on account of his great losses during the war, and who has several times recently attempted to terminate his existence, was brought to this city Sunday evening, and great care and attention were exercisedthe watchman visiting his room every half hour during the night-he committed suicide lodged in the lunatic asylum; and although manding General of each district shall appoint manding General of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, yesterday morning about four o'clock by hanging hireself with his suspenders and a piece of the sheet from his bed. When discovered the alarm was given and Dr. PARKER, the Superintendent. sent for. Every effort was made to resuscitate the for interment. AN UNFORTUNATE AFFRAY.—A difficulty occurred a few days ago about five miles from this place, between two freedmen, Aaron Crosland and Tom McCray, in which the latter was struck in the nead with a hoe in the hands of the former, severely fracturing his skull. The injury is said to be serious, but it is believed that the injured party will recover. Reputational Heroid. will recover.—Bennettsoule Herald.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, August 2.—Corron—The market opened with a continuance of the dullness noticed in vesterday's report. The supply was limited throughout, and as the requirements of holders were fully up to—in some instances in adsaure of—previous demands, the majority of buyers were obliged to held aloof, their resome instances in any continued to hold abor, their reafficied limits not permitting them to come forward, finder these circumstances the movement has been light, being confined to a few parties, whose aggregate business at the olose sunmed up barely 600 bales, mostly intended for the completeion of previously unexecuted orders—six brokers participated in the business. We have no alteration to report in prices, the greater portion of the lists sold changing hands at figures within the range of last evening's quotafions, which were as follows: Ordinary 20a22c; Good

RODRIGUE'S PULMONIC BLIXIR SPECIFIC.

MANY WHOSE DECLINING HEALTH, WHICH was precarious, and their recovery despaired of, do now with grateful emanations to the All-Wise Disposer, offer heartfelt thanks for this timely remedy. During the short time since its public introduction into use, the Originator has most happily realized her most sanguine expectations in manifestations issuing from all quarters of its unparalelled curative properties, for in no case where it has been administered with regard to directions, and persevered in, has it failed in its beneficial possible.

In resorting to this remedy, the invalid can depend upon the safety of every article in its preparation, and while it accelerates the healthful ractions of each organ and vessel, the mind can be perfectly free from apprehension of any subtle ingredient being insinuated into its composition.

bension of any subtle ingredient being insinuated into as composition.

The appetite, which improves under its administration, is at liberty to indulge prudently in whatever nutriment is palatable, digestive and wholesome, and while it is no more than proper to avoid exposure to fresh cold, no tear need be entertained of any liability under this course of treatment to induce it. It is a pleasant AROMATIC CORDIAL, quite agreeable to the taste, and as a lung revivityer and balsam of health, it is distinguishing itself as without precedent, and we trust will, ere long, claim for itself general acclamation for its unrivalled efficacy.

deipina, formerly of Charlestot as.

I have been for a year or mere past in the habit of taking the water of the "Excelsior" Spring of Saratoga. Accustomed during the great portion of my invalid his to use the different waters of the several tountains which boil up along that remarkable valley, dependent, indeed, upon them for much of the comfort I enjoy, I am satisfied that the Excelsior Water is as well adapted as any other among them, if not more so, to the purposes for which they are generally employed. It is very agreeable, strongly impregnated with the carbonic acid, lively and sparkling.  * I can heartily and conscientiously recommend it to all who need a gentle catharite and intertic.
